- 1. In the past year and a half there has been a respectable by Saviet Blos leaders of agricultural performance plans and prespects. This message respectable was the outcome of two related characteristics of the various agricultural economies in recent times.
 - that was both failing to amply raw materials to a rapidly expanding impartial contor and to provide feed for an expanding population at a lovel to sestain the past low consumption rates, thus acting as a break on general accounts growth.
 - b. A recalcitrent passentry representing the major part of the population and who are either passively resisting or operaly delying the verious governments' agrarian policies and constituted a potentially political threat to the Communist regimes.

2. To correct these communally stagnating and politically explosive eitertions, the Blue countries, other than China, siepted a series of measures designed to effect a mapid growth in indigenous production and to correct the wavest in the countryside. Should these measures fail, then other sources of food and fiber must be found.
